H. JOY, & Co. preſent their Compliments to their Cuſtomers to whom this Notice is ſent:---Beg Leave to adviſe them, that a Perſon is now ſet out to collect the Debts due to them for the Belfaſt News-Letter, Advertiſing therein, &c.; and entreat that thoſe he waits upon will give him all convenient Diſpatch.

N. B. It is requeſted that the Gentlemen at whoſe Houſes he may have Occaſion to call, will leave their Money with ſome one of the Family, to prevent a Diſappointment by their being from Home when called upon.

Belfaſt, 22d Sept. 1789.

 The Neceſſity for regular Payments is now ſo obvious, that the Proprietors humbly hope that all OLD ARREARS will be paid up; as without ſuch Punctuality it will henceforth be impoſſible to proſecute the Buſineſs.
